

Dear Dan,

Thank you so much for helping make our wedding day absolutely perfect. You made planning the details of our reception easy and stress-free, and everything was done flawlessly on that day (as far as we could tell 😊)

It was a pleasure working with you and your staff. Everyone I have encountered at your restaurant and at our wedding reception have not only been friendly and helpful, but also professional and provided excellent service.

The food you and your team made for us was Amazing! Everything we thought it would be - and we received tons of compliments from our guests. In the future we will be sure to recommend Due Amici to our friends and family, and can't wait to go back to the →
